

Ms. Iris Baijens

“Conflicts and synergies between the Water Framework Directive and the Birds and Habitats Directives in Flanders and the Netherlands”

Mr. Jorik Creemers

“Implementation of dynamic floodplain development in a WBR permit for flood risk control”

Ms. Maaïke Johanna

“Implementation of agricultural measures for water quality improvement: A cross border collaborative approach with farmers”

Ms. Johanna Andrea (Hanneke) Kloosterboer

“De Duits-Nederlandse Werkgroep Hoogwater: Een steun voor Europa?”

Mr. Florian Knollseisen

“Konzeptstudie Natur – Mensch – Wasser Möglichkeiten für Gewässerrenaturierung, Naherholung und Sensibilisierung Mensch – Wasser im Raum Brixen“

Mr. Diarmuid Neilan

“Priority Attributes to Optimize Water Governance under NZ’s RMA”

Mr. Thomas Pochwyt

“Public participation in line with the Water Framework Directive – evaluation of mutual learning within the case study Dhünn (North Rhine-Westphalia)”

Ms. Judith Anna Sprenger

“The Water Framework Directive and the challenge of public participation: comparison of three European harbour cities”

Ms. Marijn Tangelder

“Transition in management of deltas: quick profit or long term gain?”

Mr. Julian Jonathan Tramper

“Zinc exposure of terrestrial vertebrates in a contaminated floodplain – A spatially explicit modelling approach”

Mr. Tobias Unterbäumer

“Fifteen Years of Sustainable Stormwater Management in the catchment of the river Emsche/Germany – Analysis and recommendations”

Mr. Léon A. H. van Kouwe

“Establishing an ecological status threshold for the Danube River with Data from the Second Joint Danube Survey”

Mr. Aike van der Nat

“After the Flood: A comparison of two cases of public participation in the Netherlands and the U.S.”

Mr. Martinus Maria van Wingerden

“After the Flood: A comparison of two cases of public participation in the Netherlands and the U.S.”

Ms. Anne-Rieke Vuurens

“Boundaries of environmental flow in Trinidad”