

Lectures and Seminars in English

Summer Semester 2013

Dear Students,

In the following you can find our lectures offered in English language at the Faculty of Educational Science in summer semester 2013. Many of the lectures are offered by international Guest Professors. So you will have the possibility to study in an international environment in Essen.

As the number of our Incoming Students is still small, you will study in these courses with German students. So you can get in contact with the other Incoming Students as well as with German students. You are welcome to visit also our courses in German. The overview of all courses in summer semester 2013 of the Faculty of Education Sciences is provided in our Database LSF:

The Faculty of Educational Sciences has moved at the beginning of October 2009 into the “Weststadttürme” at Berliner Platz. This building is a 10 minutes walk from Campus Essen. Several lectures in the Master-Courses are provided in this building. You will get further information on the concrete lecture rooms in the commentaries below.
