The position is full-time (100 %) limited to the duration of the project (3 years), according to the Wissenschaftszeitvertragsgesetz (WissZeitVG) for fixed term contracts within third party funding. The position offers the possibility to engage in academic research.

Responsibilities

The internationally recognized research project “History of Women Philosophers and Scientists” sponsored by the Ministerium für Innovation, Wissenschaft und Forschung des Landes NRW offers a position whose research is dedicated to the history of women philosophers, preferably of the 18th century, but other focusses are also welcome.

Responsibilities are linked to the organization and development of the research center, such as grant writing, organizational and documentation duties as well as maintaining financial records of the institute.

Requirements

A PhD in philosophy, history of science or closely related subjects, as well as experience in coordinating projects are required. The ability to work in a team is necessary for this position. On-site attendance is expected. Working knowledge of German is essential.

Applications from women are particularly welcome and, in case of equal qualifications and experience, will receive preferential treatment according to state law (LGG). Qualified disabled people (in the sense of the German social law SGB IX) are also encouraged to apply. Part-time employment is possible in general.

Please note that only electronic applications can be considered. For further information, please contact Ms Julia Mühl (05251-603990, julia.muehl@upb.de).

Interviews take place in December 2016 (Paderborn University) and January 2017 (APA Baltimore). Please send the usual application documents (CV including research projects, list of publications, earliest date available) with the index number 2769, by 12.12.2016, to:
