

(HOME) TRAINING DAYS

In-person Workshop

“Presentation training for doctoral researchers”

Date: Tue, 27 September, 9.00–16.00 hours (with lunch break and coffee breaks)

Room: tba. (Weststadttürme, Berliner Platz 6–8. 45127 Essen)

Trainer: Henrike Tönnies

Target group: Doctoral researchers, max. 12 participants

Language: English

Workshop Description

Do you want to communicate technical content to an audience in a confident, lively and effective way? Do you want your audience to feel addressed and motivated to follow your presentation? This seminar is about coordinating presentation content and body language. The HOW of a presentation is just as important as the WHAT. We will develop the tools with which we can deliver a convincing all-round package. However, no one is supposed to bend – the aim is to improve the persuasiveness of scientific presentations individually and according to type with the help of many practical exercises.

Do you already have a topic that you can or must present soon? Feel free to bring it along. We will work on it together!

Trainer

Henrike Tönnies (M.A.) studied English and Comparative Literature at Ruhr-Universität Bochum. She is a certified drama pedagogue (Bundesverband der Theaterpädagogik), teaches English and regularly works as a voice talent for different audio production formats. She is a communications coach with a focus on performance improvement, presentation skills and body language training. She has been a trainer at different universities, universities of applied sciences and has worked in the free economy.