

Workshop “Good Research Practice for Postdocs: New Roles- New Responsibilities”

Date: 18 September 2024, 10:00–13:00 hours

Location: online via Zoom

Trainer: Valentina Vasilov, Graduate Center Plus

Target group: Postdocs from all disciplines, max. 12 participants

Language: English

Workshop Description

The workshop focuses on the supervision perspective in the postdoc phase. Participants will exchange ideas on how they can fulfill their responsibility for teaching the basics of good scientific work in their own research environment, what experiences they have had, and what resources and support they need to do so. Typical feedback and common uncertainties of PhD students regarding data management and publication practices will be integrated and discussed.

Trainer

Valentina Vasilov is certified personcentered-integrative coach (DACB, GwG, RTC), research integrity trainer as well as facilitator in areas of career development, communication and psychosocial health. She has many years of professional experience in promoting early career researchers as well as working experience in diversity management in the academic field. She offers counselling to early career researchers and designs programmes and trainings for the development of transferable skills. Up to 2023, she also coordinated the UniWiND / GUAT network for research integrity trainers.