

Global and Transnational Sociology

Brown Bag Talks

The Brown Bag Talk series in Global and Transnational Sociology is part of the BA Plus in Sociology and especially welcomes speakers from our exchange partner institutes around the world. In the Summer Semester 2016 a number of sessions are especially devoted to developing new research directions in the area of Transnational Work and Labour from a world regional comparative perspective, in cooperation with colleagues at the Ruhr University Bochum and as part of the UDE Main Research Area Transformation of Contemporary Societies. Brown bag organizers are Karen Shire, Sigrid Quack and Anja Weiß.

Thursdays 12.15 – 13.45 LE 736 – Bring your own lunch!

Summer Semester 2016

May 12	Gregor Bongaerts Fields of Action or Actions of Fields?
May 19	Nele Noesselt World Regional Comparisons with East Asia
June 2	Tao Liu Contingency and Transnational Knowledge-Transfer in Labour Protections in China
June 9	Anja Weiß Transnational Comparison in Qualitative Research
June 16	Christian Etzrodt Happiness, Hope, Fear: Corporate Strategies, Global Governance and Global Health
June 30	Sigrid Quack Cross-border careers in "global" civil society
July 7	Yuping Zhang Gender Disparities in China's Labor Market
July 14	Flemming Christiansen From Coolie to Sweatshop: The colonial origins of the global deployment of Chinese labour
July 21	Karen Shire Transnational Work in World Regional Comparison: A Résumé