

First Workshop of the DFG-Network "Contemporary History of Turkey" (University of Duisburg-Essen)

Fixing the State of Art – Multidisciplinary Perspectives on the Contemporary History of Turkey (19./20. November 2020)

Zoom meeting (closed meeting)

DFG-Network „Contemporary History of Turkey“

Workshop Program: "Fixing the state of art – Multidisciplinary Perspectives on the Contemporary History of Turkey", 19-20 November 2020

Thursday, 19.11.2020

18:00-19:00 Keynote: Hamit Bozarslan, EHESS, Paris

Friday, 20.11.2020

10:00-10:15 Berna Pekesen - Introduction to the meeting

10:15-11:30 Studies on religion and secularism: Maurus Reinkowski, Basel; Comment and Chair: Jan Markus Vömel, Konstanz

Break

11:40- 13:00 The contribution of cultural anthropology to the understanding of contemporary history of Turkey: Jenny White, Stockholm; Comment and Chair: Alp Yenen, Leiden

Break

14:00-15:15 The contribution of Political Sciences to the understanding of contemporary history of Turkey: Cengiz Günay, Wien; Comment and Chair: Funda Hülagu & Sevil Çakır, Marburg/Göttingen

Break

15:25-16:40 Turkish Studies as contemporary history? Samim Akgönül, Strasbourg; Comment and Chair: Hüseyin Çiçek, Erlangen

17:00-18:00 Presentations of the Network Members (Chair: Berna Pekesen)

Büsra Arı: The Politics of Poverty in Turkey: Managing Poverty through Economic and Social Planning (1950-1980)

Léa Delmaire: Rise and fall of a public issue. Anti-tuberculosis fight in Turkey (mid-1940s to mid-1970s)

Zeynep Bursa: The "collective intellectual" at the origin of the conservative turn in Turkey: Prosopographic Study of the members of Intellectuals' Heart (Aydınlar Ocağı)

18:00 Closing remarks