The Research Forum starts sharply at the time given, without academic quarter (s.t.).

Due to public health measures and travel restrictions during the Covid-19 crisis the IN-EAST Research Forum is initially planned as a webinar, but may switch to a blended presence/online forum later this semester.

This webinar is held as a video conference, to which all members and students of the IN-EAST will be invited by E-mail including instructions for online access.

Students and colleagues of all faculties and partner institutions are welcome to (virtually) join the lectures and participate in the discussions, they are kindly asked to send an E-mail to events@in-east.de.
