

Negotiating Difference, Embracing Diversity: Perspectives for EFL Education

Student and Young Researchers Conference

Thursday, 30 June 2022, 04:00-07:00 p.m. / s.t.

University of Duisburg-Essen, EFL Lab (R12 R04 B81), Campus Essen

Conference programme and speakers

Keynote talk – 04:00-05:00

Dr. Manuel López-Pereyra, Universidad Iberoamericana Ciudad de México

“Negotiating Difference, Embracing Diversity: Pedagogical Frameworks and Inclusive Practices”

This talk will focus on pedagogical frameworks that challenge sexualities discourses in educational settings from critical, feminist, and queer perspectives. During the conversation, we will highlight the importance of inclusive education as a pedagogical practice that promotes values of justice and equity. Thus, it will become clear how inclusive teaching practices are essential learning frameworks that intersect with diverse individual identities, such as religion, ethnicity, gender, and sexuality, in everyday activities in the classroom.

Talk – 05:15-06:00

Yasamin Habib, Albrecht-Brinkmann-Grundschule Dortmund / University of Duisburg-Essen

“Teaching about Diversity through Children’s Literature in the Primary EFL Classroom: Challenges and Potentials”

Talk – 06:00-06:45

Lena Hertzelt, University of Duisburg-Essen

“Decolonizing the African ‘Other’ in Teaching Materials on Nigeria”

Wine reception and networking (from 06:45)

“Meet and talk – Research exchange”

Learn more and register
free of charge:

