

InZentIM Working Lab

Migration and Labor Markets Program

Organization: Julia Bredtmann, Martin Brussig, Sebastian Otten, Thorsten Schlee & Merve Schmitz-Vardar

Friday, May 17, 2024 | 9:30 am – 1:00 pm | IAQ, LE-Building, Room 502, Forsthausweg 2, 47057 Duisburg

09:30 – 09:45 am | Welcome

Welcome and brief round of introductions

09:45 – 10:35 am | Panel I

Der Einfluss der Weiterbildungsmaßnahmen auf die Erwerbsbeteiligung geflüchteter Frauen – eine Literaturanalyse

Aydan Sen (UDE)

Einflüsse auf sprachliche und soziokulturelle Integrationsprozesse in Deutschland von Pflegefachkräften aus Hispanoamerika

Esther Domke (UDE)

10:45 – 11:35 am | Panel II

Migration typologies as an approach to studying labour markets

Christian Schramm (RUB)

Science in or about local labor regimes? On the role of community-based research approaches in studying precarious employment

Thorsten Schlee (IAQ, DIFIS)

11:45 – 1:00 pm | Panel III

Migration and Work in Times of Transnationalisation

Margit Fauser (RUB)

Making and unmaking of precarious migrant work. Research perspectives and current projects

Karen Jaehrling (IAQ)

Unions and the Labor Market Integration of Immigrants

Julia Bredtmann (RWI) and Sebastian Otten (UDE)

01:00 pm | Joint lunch (self-paying)

Details will follow

The inputs in Panel I are in German. In Panels II and III, the inputs are in English. The Q&A after the inputs are bilingual in all panels.