Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Sustainability

Lecture Series for BA/MA students from all disciplines

Online

April 24-June 19, 2024
3.30–6.30pm CET

Addressed at Aurora students from all disciplines and at all levels, the presentations in this lecture series illustrate how multi-faceted the concept of sustainability really is – touching issues from energy sources to literary prizes and from economic politics to climate activism. Students (and everyone else interested) may attend either individual lectures or the entire series and take a final exam for 3 ECTS credits.
