

Health Insurance Information

In order to enrol for the International Summer School in Global and Transnational Sociology participants need to provide proof of sufficient health insurance coverage for the duration of their summer school stay at UDE. It is up to each student to organize his or her (travel) health insurance with either a German or an insurance company from his or her home country.

The following chart contains a selection of health insurance providers, which summer school participants could choose for their stay at the UDE.
