Student Assistant for English Proofreading wanted

The Language Technology Lab is looking for a student assistant speaking English as their first language as a proofreader for various English language documents. The working time can be negotiated between 4 and 8 hours per week. The position is to be filled as soon as possible for a duration of initially 3 months (extension possible).

Task

- Proofreading of various documents in English such as conference papers, project proposals, posters, conference slides etc.
- Corrections should be made regarding linguistic correctness (spelling, grammar, style...).
- You could mostly work from home or use a computer at the lab.

Requirements

- We are looking for someone with English as their first language, very good language skills and an eye for detail.
- A background in or some familiarity with computer science or other technical subjects would be a plus.
