Specialist HR Strategy

“I explore the whole world of logistics.
And move my own career forward. At DB Schenker Logistics.”

Deutsche Bahn is a leading international mobility and logistics service provider. Our subsidiary Schenker Logistics provides industry-specific and integrated logistics solutions worldwide in the areas of overland transportation, air and ocean freight as well as contract logistics.

To develop our future generation, we are now offering our Talents@DB Schenker Logistics trainee program. Graduates who are looking for opportunities at DB Schenker Logistics will find international scope and challenges in our core departments.

We are looking for you to start in April 2013 as a

Trainee (f/m)
for our International Talents@DB Schenker Logistics Trainee Program

Our international trainee program Talents@DB Schenker Logistics provides you with an excellent opportunity to start your career and explore the world of logistics. Within 18 months, you will get a comprehensive view into our international corporate culture and our business fields: Air and Ocean Freight, Land Transport, Key Account Management/Sales, Contract Logistics/SCM, HR, IT and Finance. You will be deployed in both our head office in Essen and our worldwide country organizations. In the process, you'll get a general overview of our complex business, establish your own network throughout our company and develop your intercultural competence. Training weeks will give you the chance to strengthen your project management as well as presentation skills while workshops will familiarize you with our logistics processes and methods.

DB Schenker has a variety of opportunities to offer you: Would you like to visit one of our worldwide biggest warehouses in Penang, Malaysia? Would you like to meet our key customers in the high-tech industry in San Francisco, USA? If this sounds interesting to you and you think you fit the following profile we look forward to getting to know you!

Your profile:

- good to excellent university degree, preferably with a focus on logistics
- work experience through student internships and/or past employment, ideally in logistics
- proficient knowledge of English, basic knowledge of German, a further language is preferred
- good social skills and intercultural competence (e.g. through studies, internships abroad)
- enterprising mindset and proactive approach to business
- excellent analytical and conceptual thinking
- well-developed communication skills and a high level of customer orientation
- very good command of MS Office

If you are interested in this challenging and prospective position, please send your application in English, including a cover letter, a resume (CV), a transcript of records or university diploma, your secondary school diploma and, if available, internship and work references to talents@dbschenker.com
