

Daily lockers at the Duisburg-Essen university library

Terms of use:

1. For the storage of outerwear and bags, daily lockers are available for your use. These lockers are not for securing valuables.
2. The storage of hazardous or health-endangering substances or items is prohibited.
3. Each locker can be locked by inserting a coin (1 or 2 €). When opening the lockers, the deposit will be automatically refunded.
4. The use of the lockers is only allowed during the opening hours of the university library.
5. Lockers found locked outside the opening hours of the university library will be opened and checked by the library. Perishable food items will be discarded directly. The deposit will be retained.
6. In case of malfunctions in the locking mechanism, the university library must be notified immediately. Unauthorized interventions are prohibited. You, as the user of the locker, are liable for any damages to the locker facility caused by improper operation.
7. The loss of a locker key must be reported to the university library immediately. As the user of the locker, you are responsible for any damage incurred in connection with the loss of the key.
8. The University of Duisburg-Essen assumes no liability for items stored in the lockers in case of loss or damage.
9. By occupying a locker, you acknowledge these terms of use as binding.
