

Department of Anglophone Studies
Postcolonial Studies Section
Prof. Dr. Patricia Plummer

Guest Lecture

Doz. Dr. Eleonore Wildburger (Klagenfurt)

Paintings, Politics & Land Rights

Indigenous Australian Art in Context

Doz. Dr. Eleonore Wildburger teaches at Klagenfurt University and is currently Visiting Professor at Innsbruck University (Austria). Her research interests include Indigenous Australian studies, esp. Indigenous Australian art, and (inter)cultural studies. She has published widely on various aspects of Indigenous Australian culture, and regularly conducts field research in Utopia (NT, Australia).

Selected Publications:

- Wildburger, Eleonore. The 'Cultural Design' of Indigenous Australian Art: A Cross-Cultural Perspective. Saarbrücken: SVH, 2010.
- --- . Politics, Power and Poetry: An Intercultural Analysis of Aboriginal Identity Formations in Black Australian Poetry. Tübingen: Stauffenberg, 2003.
- --- and Christine Nicholls. "Yilpinji Narratives in Indigenous Australian Art." Literatures in English: Priorities of Research. Ed. Wolfgang Zach and Michael Kenneally. Tübingen: Stauffenberg, 2008. 421-436.

Above right: <http://kids.britannica.com/comptons/art-90554/An-Aboriginal-man-stands-in-front-of-UluruAyers-Rock-in>; below: Aboriginal flag

R11 T07 C59

Thursday, 28.06.2012, 14h s.t.