ⁱ Information on the ratification status of the Unified Patent Court available at: <http://www.consilium.europa.eu/en/documents-publications/agreements-conventions/agreement/?aid=2013001> [consulted on 07.09.2016]. The ratification of Ireland requires a referendum. Such a referendum has not been announced.

ⁱⁱ There is still an open debate as to the legal implications of the referendum that will take place in Hungary on October the 2nd 2016. As stated in Hungary's refugee referendum aims to shake up EU politics, published by the Visegrad Group, "While the referendum might not have a direct impact on the EU's legislative process regarding the Dublin reform, it could once again shift the discussion about how the EU should handle the migration crisis from commonly agreed mechanisms, to national, unilateral solutions".
