Global and Transnational Sociology Summer School

June 12 – July 7, 2023

The University of Duisburg-Essen is one of the largest universities in Germany with over 40.000 students enrolled, offering a broad academic spectrum with numerous opportunities to participate in international programs.

The university is BIG, but summer school courses usually have fewer than 30 participants. which gives all students the chance to personally engage with world-class academics and instructors.

Young University Rankings 2022

The Times Higher Education Young University Rankings list the world's best universities that are 50 years old or younger.

The table is based on the same 13 performance indicators as the flagship THE World University Rankings, but the weightings have been adjusted to give less weight to reputation.

Summer School Building and Surroundings (LF)

The Summer School will take place in Duisburg. The Duisburg Campus is small, tree-covered and has an interesting mix of pre-war and post-war architecture.

- What is Global and Transnational Sociology?
- What are our main areas of research?

The Institute of Sociology at UDE:

- About us
- Our major research areas
- The point of the Summer School: Internationalization!

Duisburg

- Heart of the Ruhr industrial area and at the intersections of the Rhine and Ruhr rivers
- Central site of the industrial heritage route in Western Germany
- Thyssen factory
- Multi-cultural
- Great summer destination
