

4th ACCER Workshop on Cross-Cultural Experimental Economics Research

May 23 -24, 2014

We are happy to announce the 4th ACCER Workshop on Cross-Cultural Experimental Economics Research. This workshop brings together advanced scholars and young researchers active and interested in cross-cultural and inter-cultural experimental economics research to present and discuss their research.

Keynote speakers:

- Swee-Hoon Chuah, Nottingham University Business School, UK (<http://www.nottingham.ac.uk/business/lizsc1.html>)
- Gianluca Grimalda, Laboratory of Experimental Economics Experimental (LEE), University Jaume I of Castellón, Spain (<http://lee.uji.es/full-time-researchers-members/gianluca>).

Besides presenting their own work, the keynote speakers will focus on methods, challenges and their own experiences in cross-cultural and inter-cultural experimental research.

The Workshop is a joint event of ACCER (www.accer.org) and the IN-EAST School of Advanced Studies of the University of Duisburg-Essen (www.uni-due.de/in-east/215/).

We plan for a small workshop with up to 20 participants to foster discussion, interaction and networking. We will offer slots for contributed papers and for work in progress in poster sessions. The Workshop will start at 4 p.m. on May 23 and end around 5 p.m. on May 24.

Thanks to the generous support of IN-EAST School of Advanced Studies of the University of Duisburg-Essen (sponsored by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research), we provide accommodation for one night and partly reimburse your travel costs.

If you want to participate in the workshop please submit

- a paper to be included in the contributed paper sessions
- or
- an extended abstract for presentation in a poster session including objectives, methods, (expected) results, and conclusions (up to 500 words).

by e-mail to Heike Hennig-Schmidt (hschmidt@uni-bonn.de).
