

“One Year With Trump: Where does the United States Go from Here?”

Monday, 22 January 2018, 6:30pm
ESG-Saal in der Brücke

This event reflects on the first year of the Trump presidency beyond the headlines the new president himself provoked. In short talks we will focus on issues, debates, and phenomena less prominent in the public. These topics may shape the future of the United States and offer a complex picture of American society behind the daily headlines today.

Studierende und Lehrende aller Fachrichtungen sind herzlich willkommen.