

Monika Keller, MD, PhDDivision of Psychooncology, Department of General Internal Medicine and Psychosomatics, Heidelberg University Hospital

Date and place of birth	September 29, 1951, Munich, Germany
Nationality	German
Education	1970 - 1976 Studies in Medicine, University of Munich 1979 registered Physician (Approbation) 1979 Doctorate (MD), University of Munich 2006 Habilitation (PhD) in Psychosomatic Medicine & venia legendi, University of Heidelberg Lecturer, Heidelberg University Medical School
Degrees	Board certified Internist (1988) Board certified Psychosomatic Medicine & Psychotherapy (1995) Board certified Psychoanalytic Psychotherapist and Family Therapist (1995)
Appointments
1979 – 1989	Training in internal medicine & hematology Resident, German Heart Centre, Munich, Resident, Dept. of Hematology/Oncology, Schwabing Hospital, Munich
1989 – 1998	Resident, Dept. of Psychosomatic Medicine, Technical University, Munich Head, Psychosocial Care Unit, Department of Surgery, Heidelberg University Hospital
1998 – 5/2005	Head, Division of Psychooncology, Dept. General Internal Medicine and Psychosomatics, University of Heidelberg
06/2005 – 02/2010	Senior Consultant - Dept. General Internal Medicine and Psychosomatics, University of Heidelberg
02/2010 – 07/2015	Vice head, Clinic for Psychosomatic Medicine & Psychotherapy, Gemeinschaftsklinikum Mittelrhein Boppard-Koblenz
08/2015 – ongoing	Research consultant, Dept. General Internal Medicine and Psychosomatics, University of Heidelberg
08/2015 - ongoing
Education & Training	HeiCuMed-Curriculum for medical students, University of Heidelberg Communication skills training (CST) for advanced medical students Interprofessional team communication (medical and nurse students) KoMPASS - CST Training and Supervision for Oncologists, Nurses & mental health staff in Germany and Switzerland Lecturer in Psychosomatic Medicine, Rehabilitation Medicine and Medical Sociology Lecturer, trainer and supervisor in Palliative Care Lecturer and trainer, Psychosocial Oncology (certified by German Cancer Society) Austria, Switzerland
National Guidelines	Delegate and expert for the development of National S3 guidelines (German Cancer Society and AWMF): <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Palliative Care for cancer patients 2015- Psychooncology 2013- Gastric Cancer 2013- Colorectal cancer 2011- Hepatocellular cancer 2012- Renal cancer 2015

Board Membership in scientific organisations Executive Board, European Association of Psychosomatic Medicine (EAPM)

Awards 2007 Roemer Preis (Deutsches Kollegium für Psychosomatische Medizin)
„Psychosocial aspects in hereditary colorectal cancer families“

Research Activities grants „Psychosocial aspects in hereditary colorectal cancer“ (funded by Deutsche Krebshilfe 1999 – 2011)

Development and validation of a measure for psychosocial assessment and diagnosis in cancer patients PO-Bado; collaboration with P. Herschbach, TU Munich (funded by Deutsche Krebshilfe 2001 – 2007)

Evaluation of psychosocial comorbidity of surgical cancer in- patients (Funded by the University of Heidelberg) 2000 – 2001

KoMPASS – Communication skills training for Oncologists, multicenter project (funded by Deutsche Krebshilfe 2007 – 2011)
Ongoing without third-party funding

Epidemiological study of psychosocial comorbidity and distress in cancer patients; PI Med. Psych. Hamburg Eppendorf (Prof. Dr.Dr. U. Koch) (funded by Deutsche Krebshilfe 2008 – 2012)

Multidisciplinary, multicenter clinical care and research project: „Support for children and families where a parent has cancer“ (funded by Deutsche Krebshilfe 2009 – 2012)

Invited lectures

11/2015 Interpersonal Care and Communication I* CARE Program MD Anderson Cancer Center, University of Houston, TX
Invited lecture within the series „Achieving communication excellence“
„How can communication skills training promote self-efficacy among physicians and ameliorate burnout“

11/2015 Invited lecture Psychosocial Oncology Grand Rounds, MD Anderson Cancer Center University of Houston, TX
„When mom or dad has cancer“