

department of social, political and territorial sciences university of aveiro

9th EastAsiaNet Research Workshop

Aveiro, Portugal, 19–21 April 2012

Agenda

Day 1: Thursday, 19.4.2012

- 14.30 Opening session (University of Aveiro, Department of Social, Political and Territorial Sciences)
- Session 1 Moderator: Carlos Rodrigues, Dep. Social, Political and Territorial Sciences, University of Aveiro
- 15.00–15.20 Josef Falko Loher, Dep. of East Asian Studies, University of Vienna
(Shifts in multi-level climate change governance in China – an example of ‘hollowing out’ the state?)
- 15.25–15.45 Thomas Heberer, University of Duisburg Essen (Environmental Governance at the Local Level: Communication, Incentives, and Control)
- 15.55–16.15 Jan Sykora, Charles University in Prague (Environmental governance and the role of civic society in contemporary Japan)
- 16.20–16.50 Coffe Break
- 16.55–17.20 Jean Pascal Bassino/Ulrich Woitek, Lyons Institute of East Asian Studies, (Business Cycles, Climate Anomalies, and Regional Height Cycles in Japan, 1892–1937)
- 17.20–17.40 Kjeld Erik Brødsgaard, Asia Research Centre, Copenhagen Business School (discussion)
- 17.40–18.00 Open debate
- 20.00 Dinner at Restaurante do Lago

Day 2: Friday, 20.4.2012

Session 2.1 Moderator: Maria Luís Pinto, Dep. Social, Political and Territorial Sciences, University of Aveiro

09.00–09.20 Nikolaj V. Blichfeldt, Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies, University of Copenhagen (Low carbon life in a Chinese city)

09.25–09.45 Sean Golden, Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona (Constructing a Discourse of “Scientific Development” and “Environmental Civilisation” in China. Ecology and Ideology in Chinese Thought)

09.50–10.10 Fátima Patrício, MSc Chinese Studies (Sustainability: a national priority in China?)

10.40–11.05 Rüdiger Frank, Dep. of East Asian Studies, University of Vienna (Discussion)

11.05–11.30 Coffee Break

11.30–11.50 Jørgen Delman/Ole Odgaard, Dep. of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies, University of Copenhagen (From ‘worn’ to “green” China-model? The environment, energy, climate change, and the 12th five-year plan)

11.55–12.15 Carlos Frescata, Observatory for China/Biosani (China greening the world)

12.20–12.40 Yveline Lecler, Lyon Institute of East Asian Studies (Smart communities in Japan: testing next generation energy)

12.45–13.10 Werner Pascha, University of Duisburg-Essen (discussion)

13.10–13.30 Open debate

13.30–14.30 Lunch at the workshop venue

Session 2.2 Moderator: Zélia Breda, Dep. Economics and Industrial Management, University of Aveiro

14.30–14.50 Gregory Lee, Lyon 3 – Institute of Transtextual and Transcultural Studies (Representation of Climate Change in China)

14.55–15.15 José de Sousa, Observatory for China/MSc student CPRI-FCSH/ Universidade Nova de Lisboa (Climate Change Mitigation: making the case for “free” technology transfer to China)

15.20–15.40 Annika Pissin, Centre for East and South-East Asian Studies, University of Lund (Left behind children in China: A comparative analysis)

- 15.45–16.05 Daniele Brombal, Ca' Foscari University of Venice (Environmental Crisis in P.R. China: Ca' Foscari Academic Exchange and Research Projects)
- 16.10–16.30 Michael Jacobsen, Asia Research Centre, Copenhagen Business School (Discussion)
- 16.30–17.00 Open debate
- 17.00–17.30 Concluding discussion
- 19.00 Departure (from the hotel) to the dinner venue, at Caves Aliança.

Day 3: Saturday, 21.4.2012

- 09.30–12.30 EAN Business meeting (upon invitation only).