Der Journal-Club findet montags von 17.30 – 18.30 Uhr im Konferenzraum I statt.

7.8.	Thomas Ernst: „Riedel et al. Meta-analytic connectivity and behavioral parcellation of the human cerebellum . Neuroimage. 2015;117:327-42.“
21.8.	Thomas Ernst presents “ Go Figure! – A hands on talk on creating figures for scientific publications using Corel Draw et al. ”
4.9.	Practice talks (DGN): Dr. Katharina M. Steiner: “ Extinction and renewal effects of conditioned eyeblink responses in cerebellar disease ” and Otilia Negruta: “ Cerebellar tDCS effects on eyeblink conditioning ”.
18.9.	Dominik Jäschke presents “ Cognitive dysfunction in patients with spinocerebellar ataxia type 6 ” Tamura et al. J Neurol 2017; 264:260-267. [Dagmar Timmann reports from the Gordon Conference Cerebellum.]
2.10.	Thomas Hulst presents reports from the Gordon Conference Cerebellum and presents Maedbh King (Western University, Canada) “ Navigating the 'Little Brain': Comprehensive mapping of cognitive function in the human cerebellum ”
16.10.	Asma Amer: “Sperber C, Karnath HO. On the validity of lesion-behaviour mapping methods . Neuropsychologia. 2017. EPUB ahead of print”.
30.10	Arik Mamlins: „Jalali et al. No consistent effect of cerebellar transcranial direct current stimulation (tDCS) on visuomotor adaptation . 2017; 18(2):655-665“
13.11.	Jens Claßen presents his IFORES project “ Cerebellar and cerebral areas related to extinction in delay and trace conditioning: 7T fMRI in healthy subjects. ”
27.11.	Andreas Thieme: “Hoche et al. The Cerebellar Cognitive Affective / Schmahmann Syndrome Scale . In press.”
11.12.	Rossitza Draganova presents “ First Results. Correlation between grey matter volume and single joint movement kinematics in patients with Cerebellar Ataxia. ”
8.1. (2018)	Björn Koch presents a summary of his doctoral thesis about “ Extinction and renewal of the conditioned eyeblink response in focal cerebellar disease. ”
22.1. (2018)	Giorgi Batsikadze presents a paper about fear conditioning (to be announced)
